

---

From: Garrison [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2016 1:01 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: [Non-DoD Source] Please send to [REDACTED]

MEETING AGENDA:

Start Time: 2:00 pm EST

Location: [REDACTED]

Attendees:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

CEO

Partner

Attorney

Program:

[REDACTED]

Cap PM

Security

Contracting Officer

Program Management Office

Agenda:

[REDACTED]

2:00 pm Introduction (Give diet coke background knowing that he hasn't been fully read in) [REDACTED]

2:25 pm Go through contract /cure notice [REDACTED]

2:45 pm Security Discussion [REDACTED]

This should not go beyond 3:15 pm. This is from a sociological perspective as people will get sloppy in messaging, etc. [REDACTED] is assigned to watch the group dynamics and de-escalate if meeting becomes contentious.

NOTES:

1. Do not get into merits of the past, it is not relevant.
2. Do not let [REDACTED] attempt to control or seek to control conversation.
3. Clearly state that the cure notice is a final course of action and the government will seek prosecution if ANY further disclosures occur.

Garrison Pierson Courtney
[REDACTED]